TILDEN AND THURMAN.

No matter how the Chronicle and Enterprise settle their imperiant argument as to which is the choice of the Nevada Democracy for President, the fact remains, that Thurman is a school-boy in politics compared with Tilden. He has had the Presidential bee in his lousy old bonnet fer years, and could hardly conceal his impa-tionce while waiting for his turn. He was a hard-money man when the disease struck him and fought his Uncle Bill Atlen very hard on that proposition. He was whipped in, however, and made some speeches in which he awallewed the inflation platform in a way which humillated his friends yery much. He has since flung congrants. sistency to the dogs, and is shuffling, twisting, and trading every-thing and everybody. He coached Blackburn and Tilden put Randall in the chait. He is doing his best to keep up the fight which makes congress a revolutionary body, and while he may help to ruin the country, he cannot help his chances in the least. Every day sees his prespects weaken, and he stands to-day a monument of felly second to no politician of the MORDEDITORIAL NOTES.

The Democrats of Providence, Rhode Island, put a colored man on their ticket, and he was defeated, as was the rest of the ticket. Now seme of the Democratic papers are pointing to his defeat as an evidence of Republican hostility to the negro. We presume the Republicans voted against him because he was a Democrat and not on account of his color. When the Republicans set the colored man free and raised him from the position of a chattel to a citizen, they did not obligate themselves to vote for him just because he was black.

The Downjeville Messenger capies the GAZETTE's item about Mr. Turner and his bride going 400 miles around to get 40 miles across, which it credits to the Journal and then says;

Is it not strange that the mail to Quincy is carried by this route, while the road from Quincy to Rene is always open. Why not carry the mails from Hene to Quincy, three times a week, and thus avoid the trouble, delay, expense and inconvenience of the mail route.

Governor Seymour repeats this saying of William L. Marcy's: "The most difficult duty that a politician has to perform is to retire gracefully from the stage of public life when he is toe old to be of further use." The most difficult duty politicians have to perform out here is not to retire when the unablic have no further was for lows:

The refusal of Seymour to head the Democratic ticket for governor New York may be taken as conclusive evidence that the Tilden wing of the racy hold the whip hand in th empire state. Seymour's election to the governorship would bring him in direct competition with Tilden for the presidential nomination. Therefore somebody not a candidate for presideptial honors will be selected.

Of the 362 congressmen, 241, or twe-thirds, are llemyers, 24 are merchants, 16 farmers, 12 bankers, 10 defters, 5 manufacturers, 7 dectors, 5 railroad men, 8 teachers, 2 preachers and 18 are without occupation. There are 4 Union and 120 Confederate soldigra in the senate and 50 Union and 65 Confederate in the house.

The brilliant genius that furnishes the glowing rhapsodies for the local columns of the licent Catarre says:

NEW YORK, April 16.—The academy of music was well filled to-night on the accasion of a game of cheas with living pieces. The spectacle was with living pieces. The spectacle was a gergeous one, and the kings, queens, knights, bishops, and even pawns, were arrayed in silks, satins, velvets, and blaizing jewels. The game was played by Captain Mackenzie and Eugene Delmar, and was won in three-quarters of an hour by Mackenzie, by a move of "queen to knights' second source."

DEACON PARKINSON.

Some time ago R. R. Parkinson, diter of the Carson Tribune, was arrested on a charge of illegal voting. The case was set for trial in the U.S. District Court on Tuesday last. Meanwhile Mr. Parkinson was admitted to bail in the sum of $500. Tuesday, when the case was called in court, Mr. Parkinson, who was in San Francisco, failed to appear. His counsel, Gen. R. M. Clarke, exhibited a telegram from him which stated that he was ill and unable to travel, and asked for a continuance. The court overruled the motion for continuance, but granted time until 1 o'clock P. M. for the counsel for the defense to get the sworn statement of some respectable San Francisco physician telegraphed up, certifying to Mr. Parkinson's illness. At 1 o'clock no dispatch having been received and Mr. Parkisson not putting in an appearance, his bail bond was declared ferfeited. A bench warrant was issued for his re-arrest, and U. S. Marshal Ash went down to San Francisco Tuesday night for the purpose of serving it.

This morning Mr. Parkinson ar-rived on the overland express, which gets here at 2:40 a. M. Being very sick on his arrival he took a bed at the Lake house, with the intention of taking the 7:35 train for Carson. He was so unwell, however, when the lightning train arrived that he re-mained in bed.

Learning of Mr. Parkinson's presence in town, a GAZETTE reperter called en him at his room in the Lake house. The old gentleman was still in bed, and appeared to be very ill and feeble. He stated to the reporter that he was afflicted with Bright's kidney disease, which had greatly troubled him of late. He had been prostrated with the malady several times during his stay in San Francisco. times during his stay in San Francisco-Had made preparations to leave for Carson City Monday eve-ning, but was taken suddenly ill while on his way to the depot and fell down in the street. He was carried to the house of his brother-in-law in Oakland. The same afternoon he received a telegram from his son, telling him to come whenever he was able. Thinking this meant that the matter had been so arranged that his presence the crowd rebelled, and flatly refused was not absolutely necessay, he relinquished the idea of making the trip in the precarious condition of his

His physician, Dr. J. L. Cummins, immediately forwarded a sworn statement, but it failed to reach Carson by I e'clock, and his bail was accordingly declared ferfeited.
